

Old Masters to Monet

Want a great art experience and see first hand the original paintings that birthed the French Impressionist movement? Then you will not want to miss the "Old Masters to Monet" art exhibit at the Mississippi Museum of Art in Jackson, MS March 23 to September 8, 2013.

More

OLD MASTERS to MONET

THREE CENTURIES OF FRENCH PAINTING FROM
THE WADSWORTH ATHENEUM

<http://www.msmuseumart.org/old-masters-to-monet.html>

Old Masters to Monet features

fifty masterpieces from the collection of the Wadsworth Atheneum in Hartford, Connecticut. The outstanding artworks provide a history of French painting, ranging from the 17th through the 19th centuries and into the beginning of the 20th century and include religious and mythological subjects, portraits, landscapes, still lifes, and genre scenes. Théodore Géricault, Eugène Delacroix, Edgar Degas, Camille Pissarro, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Paul Cézanne, Vincent van Gogh, Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec, and Claude Monet are among the masters represented.

Admission to the exhibition is $12 adults, $10 seniors, $6 students (includes admission to Symbols of Faith, Home, and Beyond: The Art of Theora Hamblett). Free for Museum members and children under 5. Group tours are available. Schedule a group tour here or call 601-960-1515. More information about programming and special events related to Old Masters to Monet coming soon.